

Wall Magazine Inauguration on 31/01/2021

On 31st January 2021, amidst a gathering of esteemed guests, faculty members, and enthusiastic students, the vibrant tapestry of Orchid-themed creativity was unveiled. As the ceremonial curtain was drawn, the wall magazine burst forth in a riot of a kaleidoscope of hues and information.

The inauguration ceremony commenced with heartfelt words from Dr. Sashadhar Kalita (HOD of the Department), who spoke eloquently about the profound symbolism of orchids as a metaphor for beauty, resilience, and diversity. Dr. Kukil Baruah, President of the Governing Body of North Gauhati College, Dr. Tapan Deka (Associate Professor of the Department of Chemistry), and a few others were among the esteemed guests present during the inauguration programme. Emphasizing the importance of fostering creativity and expression within the institution, the guests commended the collaborative effort of the students that brought this vision to life.
